

Congratulations go to....

Elizabeth Sadler, who has a severe hearing loss, who achieved 3 A levels this summer at A* A B; with a distinction in her Food Science and Nutrition . She now attends Cardiff University where she is studying Occupational Therapy.

Siblings Molly and Tom Warnke, who both have profound hearing impairment and bilateral cochlear implants, also received excellent results last summer. Molly graduated from Manchester Metropolitan University with a first class degree in English and Creative writing. Tom achieved A* A and A in his A levels and is now in his first year at Sheffield University, studying Mechanical and Robotic Engineering.